

1980 INDEX TO SECURITY WORLD ARTICLES

TITLE

- Analyzing Arson After the Fact. Mar. p. 30.
- Asset Management Through Access Control. Oct. p. 26.
- A Successful Scheme for Store Security. May p. 26.
- Augmenting Arson Control. Mar. p. 20.
- Bank Security: An Overhaul in the '80s? Feb. p. 40.
- Behavior Analysis Mar. p. 40.
- Capitalizing on Central Station Protection. Jan. p. 34.
- Combining Building Controls. Apr. p. 30.
- Computer Coverage. Jan. p. 44.
- Confidentiality and Computerized Patient Information. July p. 30.
- Consultants Consider Designing for Security. June p. 44.
- Controlling Employee Pilferage. May p. 34.
- Controlling the Rock Concert Crowd. June p. 40.
- Curing the Ills of Hospital Security. July p. 30.
- Designing for Security. Apr. p. 22.
- Doubled Systems Promise Documented Savings. Jan. p. 30.
- Employee Theft: The Reason Why. Oct. p. 30.
- Everyone Talks About Retail Theft, But Who's Doing Something? Sept. p. 42.
- Hiring Security Personnel: The Employment Interview. Jan. p. 56.
- Inching Up the Corporate Ladder. Feb. p. 22.
- Industry Standards: Setting the Pace for Security. June p. 22.
- In Fire Protection, Decisions Matter Most. Jan. p. 38.
- Lessons of a Tragedy. Mar. p. 34.
- Personal Computing and Data Security. June p. 30.
- Personal Protection on a Fast Track. Aug. p. 24.
- Polygraph or PSE: On the Trail to the Truth. May p. 48.
- Preparing for Anything Possible. Sept. p. 36.
- Privacy and Information Management. Feb. p. 36.
- Protecting Computer Hardware. Sept. p. 22.
- Protecting the Human Asset. Aug. p. 20.
- Redefining Perimeter Protection. July p. 24.
- Retail Losses: Assessing the Risk. Feb. p. 32.
- Security and Governmental Regulations. June p. 56.
- Security Robots. July p. 20.
- Security Starts with Guarded Information. May p. 30.
- Security Upgraded. Jan. p. 48.
- Selecting CCTV Lenses. June p. 36.
- Selling Employees on Retail Security. May p. 46.
- Selling Security Inside. Feb. p. 18.
- Setting Sights on a Better Security Staff. Apr. p. 34.
- Shoplifting: A Common Problem, A Wide Range of Responses. May p. 38.
- Software Security Made Simple. Sept. p. 32.
- Supermarket Security. May p. 42.
- Technology: First Line Defense Against Fire. Mar. p. 24.
- The Statistics of Shoplifting. Aug. p. 26.
- The Technology of Access Control. Oct. p. 22.
- Training: The Missing Link in Computer Security. Sept. p. 28.
- Two Sides to the Truth. Jan. p. 54.
- Zero Budgeting Lends Strength to Security Operations. Feb. p. 27.

1980 INDEX TO SECURITY WORLD ARTICLES

TITLE

- Analyzing Arson After the Fact. Mar. p. 30.
- Asset Management Through Access Control. Oct. p. 26.
- A Successful Scheme for Store Security. May p. 26.
- Augmenting Arson Control. Mar. p. 20.
- Bank Security: An Overhaul in the '80s? Feb. p. 40.
- Behavior Analysis Mar. p. 40.
- Capitalizing on Central Station Protection. Jan. p. 34.
- Combining Building Controls. Apr. p. 30.
- Computer Coverage. Jan. p. 44.
- Confidentiality and Computerized Patient Information. July p. 30.
- Consultants Consider Designing for Security. June p. 44.
- Controlling Employee Pilferage. May p. 34.
- Controlling the Rock Concert Crowd. June p. 40.
- Curing the Ills of Hospital Security. July p. 30.
- Designing for Security. Apr. p. 22.
- Doubled Systems Promise Documented Savings. Jan. p. 30.
- Employee Theft: The Reason Why. Oct. p. 30.
- Everyone Talks About Retail Theft, But Who's Doing Something? Sept. p. 42.
- Hiring Security Personnel: The Employment Interview. Jan. p. 56.
- Inching Up the Corporate Ladder. Feb. p. 22.
- Industry Standards: Setting the Pace for Security. June p. 22.
- In Fire Protection, Decisions Matter Most. Jan. p. 38.
- Lessons of a Tragedy. Mar. p. 34.
- Personal Computing and Data Security. June p. 30.
- Personal Protection on a Fast Track. Aug. p. 24.
- Polygraph or PSE: On the Trail to the Truth. May p. 48.
- Preparing for Anything Possible. Sept. p. 36.
- Privacy and Information Management. Feb. p. 36.
- Protecting Computer Hardware. Sept. p. 22.
- Protecting the Human Asset. Aug. p. 20.
- Redefining Perimeter Protection. July p. 24.
- Retail Losses: Assessing the Risk. Feb. p. 32.
- Security and Governmental Regulations. June p. 56.
- Security Robots. July p. 20.
- Security Starts with Guarded Information. May p. 30.
- Security Upgraded. Jan. p. 48.
- Selecting CCTV Lenses. June p. 36.
- Selling Employees on Retail Security. May p. 46.
- Selling Security Inside. Feb. p. 18.
- Setting Sights on a Better Security Staff. Apr. p. 34.
- Shoplifting: A Common Problem, A Wide Range of Responses. May p. 38.
- Software Security Made Simple. Sept. p. 32.
- Supermarket Security. May p. 42.
- Technology: First Line Defense Against Fire. Mar. p. 24.
- The Statistics of Shoplifting. Aug. p. 26.
- The Technology of Access Control. Oct. p. 22.
- Training: The Missing Link in Computer Security. Sept. p. 28.
- Two Sides to the Truth. Jan. p. 54.
- Zero Budgeting Lends Strength to Security Operations. Feb. p. 27.

As a reader service, Security World presents an editorial index of the feature articles that appeared in the magazine in 1980.

SUBJECT

Access Control

Asset Management Through Access Control. Oct. p. 26.
The Technology of Access Control. Oct. p. 22.

Bank Security

Bank Security: An Overhaul in the '80s? Feb. p. 40.

CCTV

Selecting CCTV Lenses. June p. 36.

Central Stations

Capitalizing on Central Station Protection. Jan. p. 34.

Computer and Data Security

Computer Coverage. Jan. p. 44.
Confidentiality and Computerized Patient Information. June p. 34.
Personal Computing and Data Security. June p. 30.
Protecting Computer Hardware. Sept. p. 22.
Software Security Made Simple. Sept. p. 32.
Training: The Missing Link in Computer Security. Sept. p. 28.

Crowd Control

Controlling the Rock Concert Crowd. June p. 40.

Employee Screening (Truth Verification)

Behavior Analysis. March p. 40.
Hiring Security Personnel: The Employment Interview. Jan. p. 56.
Polygraph or PSE: On the Trail to the Truth. May p. 48.
Two Sides to the Truth. Jan. p. 54.

Energy Management/Security Systems

Combining Building Controls. Apr. p. 30.
Doubled Systems Promise Documented Savings. Jan. p. 30.

Executive Protection

Personal Protection on a Fast Track. Aug. p. 24.
Protecting the Human Asset. Aug. p. 20.

Fire Prevention & Detection

Analyzing Arson After the Fact. Mar. p. 30.
Augmenting Arson Control. Mar. p. 20.
In Fire Protection Decisions Matter Most. Jan. p. 38.
Lessons of a Tragedy. Mar. p. 34.
Technology: First Line Defense Against Fire. Mar. p. 24.

Hospital Security

Confidentiality and Computerized Patient Information. July p. 34.
Curing the Ills of Hospital Security. June p. 30.

Olympic Security

Preparing for Anything Possible. Sept. p. 36.

Perimeter Protection

Redefining Perimeter Protection. July p. 24.

Privacy and Information Management

Confidentiality and Computerized Patient Information. July p. 34.
Privacy and Information Management. Feb. p. 36.
Security Starts with Guarded Information. May p. 20.

Retail Security

A Successful Scheme for Store Security. May p. 26.
Controlling Employee Pilferage. May p. 34.
Everyone Talks About Retail Theft, But Who's Doing Something? Sept. p. 42.
Retail Losses: Assessing the Risk. Feb. p. 32.
Selling Employees on Retail Security. May p. 46.
Shoplifting: A Common Problem, A Wide Range of Responses. May p. 38.
Supermarket Security. May p. 42.
The Statistics of Shoplifting. Aug. p. 26.

Security and Building Design

Consultants Consider Designing for Security. June p. 44.
Designing for Security. Apr. p. 22.

Security Education & Training

Guarding Upgraded. Jan. p. 48.
Setting Sights on a Better Security Staff. Apr. p. 34.

Security Guards

Guarding Upgraded. Jan. p. 48.

Security Management

Behavior Analysis. Mar. p. 40.
Employee Theft: The Reason Why. Oct. p. 30.
Inching Up the Corporate Ladder. Feb. p. 22.
Selling Security Inside. Feb. p. 18.
Zero Budgeting Lends Strength to Security Operations. Feb. p. 27.

Security Regulation

Industry Standards: Setting the Pace for Security. June p. 22.
Security and Governmental Regulations. June p. 26.

Security Robots

Security Robots. July p. 20.